Introduction

Once I was chilling with my family on a family tour. I explore many things and I want to know why this happened. What is the purpose of doing this and what would happen if we were not there. Coming to the point. "I sat at the bench and saw some Pauperized families with Heavy sack loads. " I don't know either It was a coincidence or what" but they were not even wearing slippers. And there were 5 children and 2 adults. I thought they were in groups working for food but The fact was those 2 adults were the parents of 5 children. Once I turned back and looked at my family. That day I saw 2 sides of 1 coin. We were enjoying happiness and spending our money like water but on the other hand some of the people can't even earn 1$ with their Hard work. We were throwing food that we left and some of the food we fed to Dogs and other domestic animals, and some of the food we threw in the dustbin. And I was thinking "Animals are getting food like meat, rice, and bread. And next opposite that PAUPERIZED family can't even find breakfast since morning " . I asked myself "Is this a trap or the thing people call karma and if this is karma why they are punished for their past life punishment in this life" . After that tour I went home and started to search for Karma and Matrix videos on youtube. But Unfortunately I can't trust that type of video. So I started to read books and I started to gain knowledge from those books. "Atomic Habits, Rich Dad and Poor Dad, Bhagwat Geeta, The subconscious mind and many other books too". I read and started to think "If they can write the book they think and what they explore? Then why can't I write". So, I made a decision to write a book where I can share my thoughts with primers and what I explore. So we begin our main chapter.

Karma

Karma is an ancient Hindu concept that refers to an action, work, or deed, and its effect or consequence. Hinduism identifies Karma as the relationship between a person's mental or physical action and the consequences of all the actions of a person in their current and previous lives and the chain of cause and effect in morality. In simple language It is the punishment we get by our past mistake". As i mentioned before. Is the Karma real or what? If it is real why the good people always suffer from pain in their life and if karma really exists why rapists and killers are enjoying it.

What is it?

Does karma mean money

Is it necessary to be rich to be happy

Who is Happier, Rich or Poor

In which path we are walking?

What does a relationship look like?

And many more

In my point of view I can give an answer to this question. What to learn and experience and

What i thought?

But it seems little bit difficult too

Confusion in life

Ok to get Heaven If we want something we should sacrifice something. Even heaven demands Death. We can do anything if we unite and be together we will know the real joy of life. Some of the distractions will interfere in our life But if we control our mind and be calm we can be mentally powerful.

Here is the way we can control our mind "If you want to save money but also you want to buy some junk you can fool your mind and heart by telling me you can get a better product than this. Give a fake compliment to your heart and mind saying It is good but i can get much better than this" same decision we can take it in any situation of the life to achieve what we want

Handle the Situation you Face

I already mentioned life is full of trouble, joy and adventure. According to my point of view. Life move on 5 principle

Birth

Joy (Happiest moment of life)

Learn (learning moment of life)

Adventure (Difficult and struggling moment of life)

5. *Death

If we want to be quiet and make our decision to Escape the Bloppy and wanna do what we want we should follow the HLD situation daily like It is our breakfast, lunch and dinner.

We were born only once and we will death only once too

But why should we follow this HLD daily? Yeah I also used to think the same but some of the knowledge from the environment changed my thought.

We Humans are not in Trouble because we are the main trouble. Don't you think once in your life that "Not only humans there are other animals too". Wild animals and Aerials Have more trouble than Humans. The pet or the street pet also has to face the problem like humans do. But the difference is that except Humans all other animals follow this HLD principle.

I am not interested in watching Anime and movies but due to the presence of social media I have watched little scenes or parts of Movie "Avenger". The villain of the movie told that "Humans are the foolish creature among all" They are not going to change they will always lick their past problem and never try to make their future bright and I agreed on that sentence because it shows the truth of the society It show the bloppy Here if you are confuse again "Go out and move to the shop buy 2 biscuit and call 2 street dog and give 1 packet of biscuit to 1st dog on the ground and another packet of biscuit to 2nd dog but for the 2nd dog you should feed it with your hand. You will see that the 1st dog will eat the biscuit and move from there to where the 2nd one will play with you and enjoy it because the 2nd dog senses and feels love from you. Continue this for a week you will see that the both dog will come in front of your Home at the same time but after few days you vice-versa the role you can see the 1st dog he will wait when you will put the biscuit on the ground and 2nd one will wait when you will feed him. Just feed that packet of biscuit to 1st one and for 2nd one put it on the ground and go home. The result will be the 1st one will eat the biscuit and move to his way and the 2nd one will wait until the last to play with you". You don't get it again right, See in this role 1st dog is a 1 side of Human who learn from the pain and accept it and be happy at a small thing and enjoy. But the 2nd one is the other part of humans who expect too much from others and can't surpass other struggles. I have done this experiment myself. Now it's your turn

If we want the HLD principle we should follow another principle too.

Listen/Look

Understand

Remove/accept

If we can follow this we automatically can surpass the HLD. Actually we are afraid of our failure because we think about what others will say, how they will react and many other things.

If we are living our own life, if our soul is satisfied, why should we listen to others ? Why are we afraid of facing the bullshit problem like society. I will share with you my story. Actually while writing this novel I was afraid of being a failure too. But when I read Hindu mythology book GEETA I got some positive vibes. I don't wanna sell this book at a high price, not even for money. I just want people to read my book, gain some knowledge and appreciate my book for my words, not for me. Same things written in that mythology book

1. "Do good for everyone

But

Don't expect same from other"

2. "Do what your soul say if it is right

Than

Don't reveal you had done that"

Like this I am also preparing my HLD situation Hope one day someone will break this situationship trauma from Human's mind. Don't cry for what you lost, cry for those dreams you want. If you want to be Businessman, Artist, Voice artist, Animator go join it because school and college is only for normal education. The real life lesson will be taught by struggle and the worst day of your life as usual compete to yourself not with others. If you are dull and bad at studying, try to be good. If you fail in 6 subjects next time try to pass at 1 another time 2,3 and go on no matter what, be good at what you want nothing is impossible if you are in 3rd rank at study, sport or other stuff. Then it's your fault to punish yourself because when you were enjoying, relaxing, Having fun, procrastinating your work they were struggling. Yeah I agree it is easy to say but hard to do but i already mentioned that Heaven also demands death. Well better you should handle your situation smartly

Relation is blessing and curse too

Now-a-days relationships are not totally worth more than before teenagers totally destroyed the word relationship. Now Humans are involved in the rat race. They forgot what Humanity is. They are like I will use him/her and after I get a good one I will leave him/her. Those types of people belong to the street.

I swear relationship are so dope

"When it's not about sex and money

Imagine you both making bank money

Coming home together

Sharing thing to each other what happened

Caring both family and just vibing"

Once parents were tired of finding a good guy. Now parents are afraid of what if their boy get a bad girl or manners. This generation curses everything as they can. Relationships also work in some basic principle but it is not a healthy relationship if they are doing it only for formality. According to my point of view. Relationships work on Trust and Anger with lovely fights. Yeah I know you will think about care and feelings read wisely I said in my opinion and about care and feeling True love have trust in each other and also if they are showing the worst part of them and another person is not leaving the care and feeling come automatically. The difference between girls and women is awesome. They go as below:-

Girl is immature female with selfish mind and at another side

Women are mature females with soft hearts. You can take the example of your mother if you were born before 2008 and another side of today's Gen Z female girls. The meaning of love or relationship is In the absence of another one next should be worried about another. Once legend say:-

If someone is thinking about you

Worrying about you and your condition

When you are not there physically present

That heart of the person is your true home

Couples are listening to others' waste influencers and watching the worst insta reel and destroying their relationship which is the branch of bloppy. Toxicity kills trust and feel like insecurities.

The paradox of Relationship

Relationships are a fundamental part of the Human experience; they can bring immense joy, fulfillment and a sense of belonging. However, they can also be sources of pain, heartache and disappointment. This paradox of relationship is a complex interplay of emotion, experiences and expectation.

The Blessing of Relationship

Companionship and love

Support and Encouragement
Personal growth and development
Shared experiences and memories
A sense of belonging

The curses of Relationship

Conflict and misunderstanding
Heartbreak and betrayal
Dependency and Codependency
Toxic dynamic and negative influences
Loss and grief

As a teenager I will say that Love is not important if you are busy person with creative mind but we should be in relationship with true and pure soul because life will be worst if we again enter in bloppy like this

What did my Grandmother teach me ?

My grandma was an awesome person. Yeah, she was uneducated but she gave me a life lesson and some hint to escape bloppy. I want to share it with you.

Learn The Art Of Forgiving

Once a time when i was 8 years old. I start a conflict between me and my friends because they were abusing other parents and talk worst sentence to a girl. I scold him but while accepting his mistake. He used abuse word related my family. I shout and attacked him. I hit him as hard as I could and he picked up a stone. His mother came and hit me and asked me to not play with her son. "You ruined his life, don't even visit our room," she said. Even Though it was not my mistake, all of my friends' parents scolded me in my absence. So I avoid my friends and stop going outside, I block all of my friends, I even escape my school giving the reason of fever i feel like anxiety, being depressed at that time after a couple of day my mother and brother moved out of country. They leave me to my grandmother home one day in the group of my friends they start a topic about my behaviour after a fight. All of my other friends scold to that friend who was abusing me they told their parents that there was none of my mistake also i endure all frustration and my friends who abuse me came at my home and said sorry to me but I don't want to forgive him I send him back. He continuously come and search they way to communicate with me He came and came. I ignored him and close myself at my room. Once my all friend were playing in the park I was looking them from my room window. My friend call me in sad and slow voice "Come on now we can fix it come down play with us". I hit the window but on the other side my grandma looked at me and asked me " What happened, why are you ignoring him?" I replied "No, I am not ignoring anyone" and started watching television. She asked my friends they told everything to my grandmother. At night after having a dinner me and my cousin sister go for a sleep with grandmother. Than we talk and talk till half an hour " your friend told me everything" my grandma said I ignored it, Again "yeah I know there is not your fault but you endure all Hatred from other why?" She asked. I reply "Because I don't want to make him bad in front of others". She told me some iconic words I can't forget my whole life .

She said "We should forgive people If they apologize for doing that work because If the person came to you telling and spreading bad about you . Just think How valuable you are. He/she needs you because you are the one who cares for him and stop from ruining his image from his mother" If some of the other people who are tail of the donkey will try to act like superior. Let them act If they think they are superior we should also help them by being inferior. No matter what others are doing It matter who you are. And what are you doing ?" She asked me again "Did you get that ?". I was speechless and turned around . Next day I forgave him and also He treat me like his brother and till now I am following the word of my grandmother.

Learn the Art of Ignoring

When I was an early teenager my grandma looked at me, held my hand and asked me. " What you are thinking" I replied "Noone love me everyone just show sympathy toward me but they don't love me or care me" Then who am I she said "No except you all of other each and everyone hate me". Then she told me to sit on the sofa and said that.

"Noone hates you, you are the one who thinks that everyone hates you and you make distance between them and you. Ok let's imagine All of them Hate you. Why?

Can't you ignore them. I don't mean don't talk with them. I mean that you should Ignore their words. If they are gossiping in a group then think how powerful you are, listen if we are attached and stuck between the people who are jealous of you. You are the one who is powerful among them so learn to Ignore your past and start with a great future. I also came from your age. People hate you because you spit the truth straight that people like bee sting on their ass". That day I realize why we should butter people to make our work and that day I think to Ignore all negativity

Learn To Sacrifice

When my grandma was fighting with her death. She give me a lesson and told the truth "Listen, you are a great and smart boy but should be creative. This is a world full of curse.you dream like it is easy but you can't sacrifice your joy, Happiness to others. Listen carefully, Sacrifice each and everything you have If a whole group of people is happy with it". After saying that much staff of the Hospital came and requested us to leave the ICU, Grandma promised me she will continue the word. Curiosity started to flow in my mind about what she wanted to tell me" Unfortunately, the next evening My grandma passed away. I was shocked but also curious about the meaning of the word she wanted to explain to me.

Then I saw my father sacrificing his Happiness, Time, Health and other stuff to make his family Happy. He lived alone, separated from us. Yeah He loves us but when I was a kid before teenage. I don't even remember when my father came home. We can't even enjoy being together. He never punished us but also he never spent much time with us when he was at home. Once me and my brother were laughing at a doll house and my brother held it in hand. "How can girls love this?" We talked and my father saw us holding that doll house he thought we wanted so he came and asked "Do you need this" and took the doll house and moved to the counter. Me and my brother were like oh shit ! " Boy's will laugh at us" we cried and said no we don't want this. My father was like if we looked at anything he was ready to buy that product. He loved us a lot but we can't celebrate or enjoy together. Then he came home for 1 year. We were like now we can enjoy what we hadn't done before but me and my brother are grown up and it will not suit us to play like that. He was busy on smartphone and Television. He never spends time with us. In family functions we also can't enjoy being together. But thinking of other kids who lost their father I feel grateful that I have him."

And again I saw real meaning of sacrifice word

My younger brother who is 3.5 years younger than me. He sacrificed his self-respect for me. I don't know what was going on his mind but I had got some hint before he told me. The story begins like this.

"My younger brother thought that all of my relatives and family members started to hate me and love him more than me. He was multi- -talented guy. He was stronger and smarter than me. Although he is stronger and smarter today also. He starts to score less marks in exams, he starts to act lazy and do stupid work. He does each and every work that people will hate him for. He has been doing this for 8 years because it makes me good in other ways. He starts to fight with mom and shows his bad side. Today he lost his image of being bad from another point of view just to make me happy". I can't even write how much I want to write. It felt like a movie scene but at that moment I realized what my grandma wanted to make clear to me. My brother is a real 'ITACHI' Who sacrifices himself for his brother.

It is hard to sacrifice but when you sacrifice something which makes other people happy you will find real peace.

Showing off

It is a behaviour characterized by excessive or ostentatious displays of one's possession, abilities or achievements. It often involves the intention to impress or intimidate others while it can also be perceived as arrogant or rude. I considered it bloppy because Now-a-days, people want to look rich. They don't wanna be rich but act like they are rich. They even can't donate in charity think they are rich showing off always pay you as I mentioned karma before

What is bloppy

A bloppy is an error or blunder that is often caused by carelessness, awkwardness or a lack of coordination. It can lead to embarrassing situations, minor injuries or even significant consequences. For example someone might accidentally spill their drink on a co-worker, trip over a loose cable or drop a fragile object. Bloppy is a common part of our life and while they can be frustrating, it's important to learn from them and move on. My grandmother was also stuck in the bloppy but she gave me a hint to escape from this. I only saw my brother who is not a bloppy. He can escape it from there but he doesn't wanna live a life which is separated from others. Well i already mentioned it is hard but not impossible to escape from this bloppy. Bloppy is a clumsy mistake in a few sentence or a word and we are repeating it without thinking of our future
